

TWO OF THE FAVORITES SUCCEED.

Monday gatherings at racetracks are usually small.

That superb filly La Tosca has been sold by the Schuykill Stable to Pierre Lorillard for a price variously stated at $15,000, $20,000, and Huggins says $15,000. Mr. Lorillard is certainly to be congratulated upon this purchase. With such a record, with such breeding, without a defect or blemish, sound and well, with many magnificent races to be won by her, such a filly would have been cheap at $30,000. But the Schuykill Stable has done well with her, having won about $20,000 in stakes and purses with her this year, besides handsome winnings in bets. She cost the Schuykill Stable only $11,000. Mr. Lorillard now has one star filly in his stable.

under false pretences, and he tells the court officer to do his duty and arrest the bookmaker. As the accused man seriously objects to being haled down to the justice's court, where he is certain of getting only injustice, he yields and pays over $140 to the fellow, who departs appeased. Now isn't that a delightful little scheme for the collection of lost bets? If the bookmakers are wise they will decline to bet at all hereafter with Long Island justices of the peace, some of those majestic and dignified occupants of the bench may not be the terrors of the law to extort money from the bookmakers when they lose, but it is —Skeels' side.

Although the defeat was due to Hamilton's poor riding, Judge Morrow was made the favorite in the second race. He carried only 118 pounds, while in the second handicap he had 122, but both Homer and Pessara beat him in the homestretch after he had run fairly for a mile. The time was not just 2:36, but Homer has a remarkable burst of speed at the finish when he carries light weight, and he outran Pessara in the homestretch. Pessara was giving him six pounds. At the end, Pessara was giving him six pounds. Pessara was very lucky. After defeating the favorite, Strathmore, in a race at Sheephead Bay, he was beaten next perfectly by an outsider, Longford. So far, Judge Morrow has won five races, and Pessara has won four. Judge Morrow, in the style, Homer, who was the favorite in the betting, was first money. A maid

John Huggins bought the mare La Tosca from the price-loving Brothers. It was reported that the price was $20,000, but the check said $15,000, and Huggins will not run her in that was the price paid because he doesn't care who knows what she is selling races, so he doesn't care who knows what she is. La Tosca is the first of the good ones Mr. Lorillard said he was going to buy. If the public labored under the delusion that Huggins would not be 1-2-3-day with one of his horses, they were mistaken, as he got there in the third race.

Lorillard, the winner of the second race, has been

Jack Joyner was not giving up his Chesapeake money for the horses he bought on Saturday. He was content for Billy Roller, who was too modest to brag for himself, as he is always embarrassed in a crowd. Report from Latonia says that the sale of a champion was not "on the level" and he was bid in. Fred. Walhaum is going to give his friends a souvenir of the Guttenburg track. It will be beautifully illustrated with photographs of his horses, showing the physical changes in their form. The proofs need correction.

number is limited. All of them are in fair shape at present. De Long has had a fair season with Portester, and the horse is in better shape now than at any time since his fall at Sheephead Bay. Firenzl will be shipped to the rancho this fall. The chances are that she will be bred to Salvador in the spring. He is sure to be a good stock horse, John Mackey says, and a sure foul-getter, he is so clever that he has not a single bad trick. He looks better than ever before and could be trained again without any trouble. Mr. Haigren deserves the thanks of the entire racing community. Warwick was not bred this year, only to coachers. If he will take him somewhere and kill him the public may give him a medal. The mares on the Haigren ranches will be culled out from time to time, and any mare that has had a fair chance and has not thrown a winner will be bred to trotting stallions or coachers. In the future the breeding at Rancho del Paso will be conducted as follows: The winning mares that have won great races will be bred to pendence between the drivers of the horses. The drivers of the horses were to be paid for the ride it right after the race is decided. There will be no kite-shaped conditions.

Hamilton is taking a much-needed rest. He did not ride in the May Day races. He has been offered a better price against the gelding if he had been up, but his ride on Kingston was the last straw. M. F. Dwyer gave him every chance and is sorry that he was compelled to let him go. He is a fine horse.

Garrison is doing regular work and would be ready to ride at short notice. If Garrison rode races as often as he does, he would be lynched by an indignant public.

W. L. Scott establishment will be sold some time this fall, so there will be a chance for many new

THE DAY IN THE POOLROOMS.

The poolroom keepers played a conservative game yesterday. They would risk business only on four out of the six racks. Little business was done on the first, second, fourth and sixth counts were put on the board, and all of those were substantially correct. The descriptions were all promptly called off, and there was none of the usual hesitancy and doubt in respect to close finishes. It was not until 6 o'clock, however, that the official placing in the first race was received, and backers of Terrier will in all probability be compelled

RACING AT LATONIA.

Cincinnati, Sept. 28.—A fair crowd witnessed the sport at Latonia this afternoon. The day was fine, clear and the track was in good condition. The first and third races were won by moderately backed horses at 3 to 1. Prince of Darkness, who won the second race, carried little money at 6 to 1. The last three races were captured by prime favorites.

First race—Selling; for three-year-olds and upward, that have not won at this meeting; one mile. Brutus, 11-10, won. Great second, Virgil 11 third. Time—1:45.

Second race—Selling; purse; for all ages; one mile and one-half.

Stallion Belmont, Sept. 28.—The stallion Belmont, who made the fastest mile ever made by a stallion in a race, is the property of John Cunnibach, of this city. The time, 2:14, was made at Cambridge City, Ind., on Saturday, Sept. 27. Cunnibach received a record yearling colt offering $25,000 for him, but he asks twice as much. Belmont is six years old and was bought when a yearling for $1,600.

The Committee on Buildings of the Board of Education held a meeting yesterday afternoon. Superintendent Snyder presided. The subject of the meeting was search for a safe school buildings, but had found nothing since the last meeting of the committee. It was also received that the survey of Grammar school No. 25 would be made on October 1. The building was abandoned by the pupils about two weeks ago. After the survey has been made it will be known whether the building can be used for school purposes in the future. It is not believed, however, that it will be again occupied as such. It is still uncertain what building will be hired for the children.

TO ADVANCE ITS STOCK TO PAR.

The Georgia-Alabama Investment and Development company, of which General Benjamin F. Butler is resident and James W. Hyatt, formerly Treasurer of the United States, is treasurer, announces that on October 1 it will advance its stock to $10 a share, or par. It now offers to the public 30,000 shares, which, if taken before October 1, may be had at $4 a share. All stock purchased during September will receive the October dividend of 20 cents a share. The company has valuable properties at Tallapoosa, Ga., which have abundant earning capacity and will pay much for the stock. The offering is being rapidly taken.

PHILADELPHIA VICTORIOUS AT CRICKET

Philadelphia, Sept. 28.—The cricket match between Lord Hawke's eleven and the team made up of the "cracks" from the first class Philadelphia team, which began on Friday last, ended to-day with a victory for Philadelphia. The Englishmen, who started their second inning Saturday, making 84 runs for a loss of two wickets, finished to-day, making 171 runs, or a grand total of 430 runs. The Philadelphians began their second inning, needing 183 runs to win. They secured with the loss of only two wickets, their last run being made three minutes before the time expired for closing. The outcome was something of a

The excitement as the game neared its end was intense. Every play that added to Philadelphia's score was loudly cheered and as George Patterson, the young American champion, scored the winning run, the crowd broke over the field and manifested its delight in various ways. Many surrounded Louis Hawke and shaking hands with him, congratulated him upon the good showing made by his men. A future match will be played Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. On Thursday night a complimentary ball under the direction of well-known society leaders will be given to the visitors. The full score follows:

The Brooklyn team went first to the bat, and opened the game with four runs. Collins led off with a two-bat hit to left field and followed with a clever steal of third. Ward was sent in to catch balls and score second. Fouts hit a slow grounder to first, but Collins had scored before Denny could get the ball to the plate. Burns followed with a hit past first and Ward scored. Burns started second and Fouts followed with a sacrifice, on which Fouts scored. A similar play by Pinkney sent Burns across the plate.

Cleveland, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—William Barmie, the manager of the Cleveland Athletic club, for eight years, has resigned his place, and will be succeeded by Arthur H. Barmie, taking charge of the latter team to-morrow. He and Larry Von der Horst, the president and principal owner of the Baltimore club, have been at variance all summer. Each thought he knew best how to manage the club team, and that the other was not well managed at all. Von der Horst wanted Barmie to release Hahle, Walshe and O'Connell. Barmie said it was his duty to keep the three in the club, and that was what he had done. Von der Horst wanted Barmie to release Hahle and Harnie, and Barmie said it was his duty to keep the three in the club, and that was what he had done.
